iPad as a Sales Tool

We create interactive sales tools that run on an iPad. These can be brand / product service overviews, and can be created cost effectively as interactive PDFs. Or they can be developed as actual iPad apps that can run slide shows, video and offer non-linear navigation (the ability to jump to any section or any page at any time).

One app already created was used to extend the brand messaging in a trade show environment with the use of slide shows and product videos. (See PaR Systems example.)

We are happy to discuss this further as well as show examples of what MaxMarCom has already produced for other clients.
